LAWTON GIVES TESTIMONY

Blames Jurist for Wrecking Central of Georgia Railroad Banking Company.

Sayannah, Ga., January 27.—Members of the special congressional committee who are here investigating charges of official misconduct on the part of Federal Judge Emory Speer, of the Southern District of Georgia, to-day witnessed another dramatic outburst from the sayant of the special congressional committee of the special congressional committee of Gedar Street, or Bowling Green Road, and shown on said plat recorded in D. B. 181-A. page 158, in said clerk's office. This land lays high and dry, and by reason of their liberal fronts and depths should attract persons who will be considered to the sayant of the city limits, yet near thereto. Cut this out or store in the south side of Cedar Street, or Bowling Green Road, and shown on said plat recorded in D. B. 181-A. page 158, in said clerk's office. the accused judge. Chairman Webb, in your memory, so as not to forget of the committee with difficulty the day and hour. of the committee, with difficulty silenced Judge Speer and threatened to eject offending persons from the courtroom unless more temperate language was employed.

The incident occurred furing the testimeny of General Peter W. Meldrim, of the committee, with difficulty kinguage, and that no demonstrations will be tolerated."

Judge Wrecked Bank.

A. R. Lawton, vice-president of the Central of Georgia Railroad, declared before the committee to-day that Judge Speer wrecked the Central of Georgia Railroad Banking Company.

Mr. Lawton said Judge Speer had issued a "midnight order" appointing receivers for the company at a fine when the par value of its stock was $100 per share and its market value slightly more than $110. The witness said Judge Speer's action was taken on a bill "which had no equity in it," and that through the appointment of receivers the credit of the company was completely destroyed.

Judge Speer's alleged love of publicity again was touched upon to-day, when General Meldrim testified that he had tried cases before Judge Speer on "the porch of the hotel at Mount Airy," N. C., with an audience of Iadies." The witness declared that the majority of lawyers throughout the State "do not regard Judge Speer as a fit judge."

W. M. Toomer, formerly an atterney at Wayeross, Ga, said that Judge Speer was one of the most humane men he ever knew, and "goes vigorously after the truth." He denied that Judge Speer had terrorized clients of his into plending guilty to a charge of peonage. W. M. Mackail, an attorney, told the committee he "considered Judge Speer unit to be a judge."
